PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Our core products are handmade tableware and decorative glass, which include tumblers&stemware, plates&bowls, vases, candleholders as well as various decorative items of diverse designs and sizes. In the world where automation has become a norm, our handmade range portrays a touch individuality. Each piece is still individually crafted in the traditional processes where special skills and exceptional patience are essential, making exciting and unconventional designs achievable. In addition to the core handmade range, we also operate successful fully-automatic production facilities suitable for mass producing glassware of simpler designs.

With such a diversity,
