PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

Glass, Solar, Display, Optics, 3D-Coating, Web, or Special Systems - all business units of LEYBOLD OPTICS help you to experience vacuum technology from its most beautiful angle. Only recently our 'Pegasus' system has added a completely new aspect to the display market. Now we are making a start in matters of glass systems. 'Apollon' is our answer to the quest for more flexibility in the coating of architectural glass. The first specimen of this new generation of sputtering systems with an enormous throughput is already being built.
