PRODUCTS OR MACHINERY

WINDOWS

Our passion for thermal performance, product strength and resistance to air and water infiltration are at the core of every Loewen product we manufacture. Take a look around and discover a world of products that we're proud to call Loewen windows.

DOORS

Perhaps the most important distinguishing feature of our doors is the artistry and vision of the people who craft them. In their skilled hands, aided by the most advanced production technology available, wood, metal and glass serve as a bridge from what's within to the great outdoors.
